FLORIDA STATE VS. FORDHAM - A SERIES HISTORY

Florida State will face Fordham, which is located in the Bronx, N.Y., in the first round of the Jamaica Classic in the Jamaica Coliseum. The meeting between the Seminoles and the Rams is the first between the two schools in the sport of basketball. The Rams are coached by Jeff Neubauer who will face the Seminoles for the first time in both his coaching and collegiate playing career. Jaden Uken, the Director of Basketball Operations at Fordham, was a graduate assistant at Nebraska when the Seminoles defeated the Cornhuskers, 74-60, in the Orange Bowl Classic on December 31, 2005. Florida State's game against Fordham is its first against a non-ACC team from the state of New York since defeating Manhattan College, 83-67, in the Orange Bowl Classic on Dec. 17, 2016.

HOW TO WATCH AND LISTEN TO FRIDAY'S GAME AGAINST FORDHAM

Both of Florida State's games in the Jamaica Classic on Friday and Sunday will be broadcast on the CBS Sports Network. The game can be viewed on Direct TV channel 221, on Xfinity Comcast Cable channel 743, CenturyLink Cable channel 643 and on Dish Network Channel 158. SEMINOLES TO HONOR NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE AGAINST FORDHAM

The Florida State men's basketball team will wear turquoise Nike N7 uniforms against Fordham on Friday in the Jamaica Classic to raise awareness for bringing sport to Native American and Aboriginal youth. It marks the ninth time (and first of two times this season) the Seminoles will wear the special uniforms. It also marks the fifth consecutive season the Seminoles will wear the turquoise uniforms. Florida State makes a distinct departure from its traditional school colors to don turquoise Nike N7 uniforms to stand for the importance of bringing sport and physical activity to Native American and Aboriginal youth. "The Seminole Tribe of Florida approached us about this program and we are honored and excited to wear these unique uniforms," said head coach Leonard Hamilton. "The color is significant as it is deeply symbolic of friendship and community in the Native American culture." Florida State's game against Fordham marks the ninth time in the last five seasons the Seminoles will have worn the very special uniforms. The Seminoles first wore the turquoise uniforms in their 89-61 win over UT-Martin in Tallahassee on November 17, 2013.

SEMINOLES BACK IN JAMAICA AFTER SUMMER FOREIGN TOUR

Florida State played three games in Jamaica during the summer of 2017 as part of a foreign trip the Seminoles enjoyed. The Seminoles won each of the three games they played as part of the trip which is allowed every four years by the NCAA. The Seminoles won two games in Kingston and one in Montego Bay. The interesting aspect of each of the three games was each was played utilizing international rules which included playing each game with four quarters. Seminole head coach Leonard Hamilton played a different lineup to start each quarter of all three victories.

THE JAM WITH HAM WINNERS

Florida State head coach Leonard Hamilton unveiled the 2017-18 team to the adoring Seminole crowd at the ninth annual Jam with Ham at Tully Gymnasium – complete with a 1980's themed program that included 80's music and Hamilton himself dressed in his best throwback suit blended with a kaleidoscope of colors that certainly drew the loudest cheers of the night. The night was highlighted by a dunk and 3-point shooting contests which were won by junior Terance Mann and senior Brian Angola.

M.J. WALKER WITH A SOLID DEBUT AGAINST GEORGE WASHINGTON

Freshman M.J. Walker totaled 12 points, three rebounds, two assists and one steal in his Seminole debut against George Washington. The fifth McDonald's All-American to sign with Head Coach Leonard Hamilton and Florida State, Walker made five of his nine field goal attempts (.556 percent) and was one of five Seminoles to score in double figures against the Colonials. Walker led the Seminoles with three made 3-point field goals in his 18 minutes played.

WALKER WAS IMPRESSIVE ON THE DEFENSIVE END AGAINST GEORGE WASHINGTON

Maybe more impressive than M.J. Walker's 12 points and three rebounds against George Washington were the two charges he drew in the second half of the Seminoles' season-opening victory over the Colonials.

COFER BACK IN FLORIDA STATE'S STARTING LINEUP

Florida State senior Phil Cofer scored 15 points and pulled down four rebounds in 24 minutes as a starter against George Washington. He enters Friday's game against George Washington having started 30 career games with starts coming during each of the four seasons in his career. Cofer started a career-high 24 games as a freshman during the 2014-15 season when he averaged a career-high 6.9 points and 22.3 minutes played.

Quoiting Florida State Men's Basketball

"That's a huge asset (Florida State's depth) to their team, he (Head Coach Leonard Hamilton) was quoted saying he feels like he has nine starters and that was very evident tonight. He has a bunch of guys he can throw in there and having depth is a tremendous asset to any team. They played a bunch of guys tonight, significant minutes and that's a good team right there. They lost a bunch of really good players, but I think they did a tremendous job of replacing those guys."

Maurice Joseph George Washington Basketball

"Terance Mann is a heck of a player, a tremendous rebounder, and has a great nose for the ball."

Maurice Joseph George Washington Basketball

"There's no doubt that his (Terance Mann's) role is going to be different (this year). Tonight (against George Washington) he was attacking the basket. Also, he's improved his perimeter shooting, so I think he's going to be a pretty good perimeter shooter more than anything else. What we need from him, and the entire team, is just to be consistent with our execution."

Leonard Hamilton Florida State Basketball

"The sky's the limit for him (for Christ Koumadje). He has a knack for putting the ball in the basket. I thought he was extremely aggressive tonight (against George Washington). He had five blocks. He must have changed several more. I thought he went after rebounds. We've tried to encourage [him] to rebound out of his area. Right now he's rebounding in his area.

Leonard Hamilton Florida State Basketball

"Phil's (Cofer) has been the Energizer Bunny at practice.

Leonard Hamilton Florida State Basketball

"On an extremely deep team last year Terance Mann put up rock solid numbers while getting plenty of playing time. Mann scored double digits 15 times with his best performance coming in a 93-78 win vs Virginia Tech. The 6'5 guard scored 22 points shooting 7-11 from the floor and grabbed nine boards. A very good sign from Mann last year was the fact he played well against some of the better teams in the country (Notre Dame, Virginia Tech, Louisville, Duke, and Florida)."

Tony Patellis All Things ACC

"Junior Terance Mann showed last year he can get to the basket and is also a strong rebounder who can play the two and three."

Michael Bradley Lindy's College Basketball Annual

"The Seminoles will be tall and athletic, and should (M.J.) Walker, (Terance) Mann and one of the guards prove to be productive scorers, they will be dangerous because of their defensive ability."

Michael Bradley Lindy's College Basketball Annual

FLORIDA STATE BEGINS SEASON WITH BLOCK PARTY

Florida State was credited with eight blocked shots (career-high five by Christ Koumadje and three by Ike Obiagu in his first career game) in its victory against George Washington. The Seminoles have blocked 25 shots (six against Central Missouri and 11 against Thomas University in its two exhibition games and eight against George Washington in its season opener) in its first three times on the court this season.

KOUMADJE NEARS TOP-25 FOR CAREER BLOCKED SHOTS

Junior Christ Koumadje blocked a career-high five shots in Florida State's season-opening victory over George Washington to bring his career total to 64. He has blocked 64 shots in the first 62 games of his career for a 1.03 blocked shots per game average. He is only two blocked shots from moving into a tie for 25th place on Florida State's career blocked shots list.

Junior Christ Koumadje made seven and 11 shots from the field (.636 percent) and enters Friday's game against Fordham shooting .613 (72 of 119) from the field for his career. He shot .654 percent from the field as a sophomore. Koumadje needs 56 field goal attempts to reach the 175 career field goal attempts needed to be considered to be included on the Seminoles' top-25 list for career field goal percentage success.

WALKER PLAYS WELL DEFENSIVELY AGAINST GEORG WASHINGTON

Sophomore CJ Walker who started the first game of his career against George Washington, played well on the defensive end of the court against the Colonials. He pulled down a career high five rebounds (all on the defensive end) and tied his career high with three steals. It marked the second time in his career that he earned three steals against George Washington; he also earned three steals in Florida State's 67-48 win over the Colonials on Dec. 4, 2016 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

KEBENGELE IMPRESSES IN SEMINOLE DEBUT

Redshirt freshman Mfiondu (FI-on-Du) Kabengele (KAB-en-Golly) scored 10 points and pulled down two rebounds in Florida State's victory over George Washington on Tuesday night in Tallahassee. For Kabengele, his first career game was worth the wait after sitting out the 2016-17 season as a redshirt member of the Seminoles' 2017 NCAA Tournament team. One of the early highlights of the season was a steal near midcourt by the 6-10 forward and a dunk at the other end of the court to give Florida State a 23-11 lead with 11:17 lead.

Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 116, Central Missouri 68

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Behind a hot night from beyond arc, Florida State rolled to a 116-68 win over Central Missouri in its first exhibition of the season. Terance Mann scored 12 points and added six rebounds, but the story of the night was the Seminoles' ability from deep, knocking down 13 shots from behind the 3-point line. Junior PJ Savoy, the team's top marksman from a year ago made four on the night, on the way 19 points in the contest. Seven different Seminoles hit a three on the night, a stark contrast from a season ago when the team ranked near the bottom of the ACC in threepoint shooting and percentage. The depth on the roster, especially of those with shooting capabilities provides FSU with more versatility on the offensive end than it had last year. The game also provided a first glimpse of some new faces for the Seminoles, including the debut of highly recruited M.J.Walker. The true freshman dropped 17 points in his first game dawning the Garnet and Gold. Flashes of the athleticism that made him a five-star recruit appeared against the Mules, while the Jonesboro, Ga., native also showed some ability from the 3-point line.

FSU Forward Terance Mann Credits Mother For Turning Him Into Strong Leader, Floor Coach

By Safid Deen Orlando Sentinel Nov. 11, 2017

When Florida State forward Terance Mann roamed his mother's college basketball practices, he had one simple job he took to be extreme.

Mann's duty growing up was to just be a ball boy and give basketballs to the players when requested, but he took his work to another level.

"He would protect that ball rack like it was his life, and the girls literally had to come up to him and ask me nicely for a basketball before he would give it to them," said Daynia La-Force, Mann's mother who has who has spent 22 years as a Division I women's basketball coach.

"He felt like those were his prized possessions and he would not give them up. He thought the ball boy was supposed to protect the basketballs."

Mann added with a smile, "Yeah, I guarded that ball rack with everything. I remember those days. They were fun."

As coach Leonard Hamilton and the Florida State men's basketball team prepares for Tuesday's season opener at home against George Washington University, the Seminoles will rely heavily Mann to lead by example and from experience this season.

Behind Magic rookie forward Jonathan Isaac, Hornets rookie guard Dwayne Bacon, Knicks G-League guard Xavier Rathan-Mayes, fifth-year center Michael Ojo and Mann last season, the Seminoles (26-9) went undefeated at home, finished second in the ACC and were a win short of tying the school record for victories in a season.

While their first trip back to the NCAA Tournament in five years was spoiled by a second-round exit to Xavier at Amway Center, the Seminoles hope Mann can be a pillar on a team that will be without a clear-cut NBA prospect and depending on a cast of developing players to compete in the vaunted ACC.

FSU will need Mann to shoot more from the outside, but his gritty multi-faceted play combined with his firsthand knowledge from his mother's practices make him an ideal candidate to lead the Seminoles.

"He was pretty much born on a court, and raised on a court," La-Force said. "He's learned everything from being on a basketball court, everything about life."

After playing at Georgetown, La-Force climbed up the women's coaching ranks up and down the East Coast at Long Island University, St. John's, New Haven and Northeastern. She is now entering her fourth season at the University of Rhode Island. Mann, 21, and his younger brother Martin, 19, have been fixtures on the practice courts, learning along the way.

During quiet moments together, La-Force would ask Mann which players were wearing certain jerseys so he could learn his numbers.

As practice was underway, Mann and his brother were on the sidelines imitating the players' actions. When La-Force blew her whistle to coach up a player, Mann listened to the yelling intently until it was time for him to also resume practicing.

When it was time to head back home after road games, Mann and his brother would ask if they could go sit in the back of the bus with the girls on the team.

As they got older, they would travel with La-Force on her recruiting trips to scout for new players — something Mann surprisingly loved. More than the traveling to new places and going out to dinner, Mann enjoyed sitting in basketball gyms for high school and AAU games like a coach himself.

"Believe it or not, I like going recruiting with her," Mann said. "Since I was younger, I would give my mom little tidbits of players I would see."

If La-Force's team suffered a loss on a certain day, Terance and his brother knew to keep their distance. Mann said he would often check in with his mother after the games, hear her "coaching spiel" about the unfortunate outcome and then head back to his room to play video games to let her finish stewing.

"If I lost a game, he may not have had dinner or help with his homework," La-Force said with a laugh. "They knew to give me at least an hour after a loss to cool off."

As Mann has gone through prep school and is now entering his third season at FSU, he and La-Force have to stay connected from afar.

Before every FSU game, La-Force loves to send Mann a special text letting him know it is game day. While they might speak briefly before tipoff, they like to save their 20-minute debriefing for after the games.

"He always listens, wants to talk, sometimes giving me his side of the story. Then I have to say, 'No, no, no, this is what I saw,'" La-Force said.

Mann admits there may be times when he's not ready for his mother's honesty. But it's more than appreciated.

"I wouldn't say it's like a coach and player relationship. I feel like she's my mentor," Mann said of his mother. "She's my mom of course. But I feel like she's always trying to give me life lessons like a mentor.

"Whatever happens, I'll go to her and ask her for advice and she'll have the right answer. Sometimes it's not the answer that I want, but it's always right."

Luckily for Mann and his mother, La-Force's schedule lined up perfectly, allowing her to visit FSU for the team's two exhibitions. She will also be in the stands for the season opener after her first two games of the season, but she won't be able to see Mann in person again until the ACC or NCAA tournaments later in the year.

"It just worked out that way — it's God giving me an opportunity to watch him grow, watch him play," La-Force said.

She said her proudest moments as Mann's mother are when she hears how respected and valued he is as a leader in FSU's program.

Mann hopes to make her even more proud this season, with high hopes for the Seminoles and himself this season. "I have to step it up this year, definitely, on both sides of the ball," Mann said. "I'm trying to not only get defensive player of the year, but I'm definitely trying to get on the ACC All-Defensive Team. That's one of my big goals.

"I definitely have to step it up."
